- VP of Loss Prevention: Lee Smith: Alumni did a lot of work with the house. Plaques in the formal are being redone. Do not have a dishwasher because of finances. Good work to everyone who came out for the summer weekend. TJ and Tony were here this weekend to work on the house. There is a house cleaning schedule and a plan for brothers who do not live in the house. Set up a chore wheel. Brothers who do not clean up after themselves is a major concern. Brother Smith said he will be cracking down on brothers who do not clean up after themselves. We need to be accountable with ourselves and with each other. There will be weekly and monthly house cleans up. There will be catering for the house but will continue to shop for breakfast and lunch.
- VP of Recruitment: Tyler Dudek: this semester is very important for recruitment. We need at least ten new members. There are 13 names on a ledger. The goal is to have one to two members a day. Brothers should buy a rush t-shirt. Brothers James and Zak are working on a recruitment video. Monday will be poker night at 7:00, Football at Grady at 5:30 and Ultimate Frisbee on Friday, and the All Greek Fair on Friday and try to tailgate the first football game. Also a mud volleyball team will be made. Brothers we need volunteers for the activities fair on September 3rd. Brothers please become involved in other activities besides Delta Upsilon.
- VP of External Relations: Joel Carachure: Chi Omega walk for wishes. Brothers please sign up. Four brothers are registered. Homecoming October 3rd and 5th. We need a homecoming chair. Fallen Soldiers 5k is October 18th. We need brothers to volunteer and to sign up. Need to do more community service. There will be a semi-formal.
- VP of Academic Excellence: Tyler Czarnecki: Grades last semester were poor. However some brother did well. There will be study hours. Hours will be assigned based on GPA. 4.0 – 3.5 there are no mandatory hours. 3.4 – 3.0 there are three mandatory hours. 2.9-2.5 there is seven mandatory hours. 24/7 courtesy hours at the house. There will also be quiet hours 10:30pm – 7:00 am from Sunday night to Friday morning. Brothers please moderate your consumption of alcohol. The standards board is Brothers Joel, Nick, Logan, and Lee.
- VP of Membership Education: James Hobson: waiting for new members. Next week we will do jeopardy after chapter. Brothers please read over your Cornerstones. Handed out educational surveys. We will have an activity raffle we will draw after chapter.
- VP of Finance: Josh Zumarraga: Will work on communications with brothers. We lost two brothers one with a lot of debt. Those who pay all dues might be put into a raffle.
- VP of Administration: Jacob Lichtenwalter: We would like a copy of you schedule so we can decide when will chapter will be along with house cleans. A copy of the recruitment schedule will be attached with the minutes.
- President: Eric Leiterman: Welcome back, three new members to the executive board. We need to push for recruitment. We have the rush t-shirts. If you need they are $21 dollars. Grades start with the first week so go to class, wear your letters, and sit in the front row brothers. We will know if you are not going to class. Brother if you have not please log on to the DU page on Purple Post. Brothers will be checking you wiu e-mail regularly. Chapter next week will be on Monday September 1st at 7:00 pm.

VIII. Advisor Reports

- Alumnus Advisor: Dave Maguire- Welcome back, hopefully everyone received a newsletter this summer. The Alumni Corporation is supporting us. At the Leadership Institute in Kansas City, MI there many brothers come many different fraternities. Our fraternity is growing nationwide. Remember brothers we are responsible for each other. We must keep each other accountable. Step up recruitment and think about how can we make our fraternity successful.
