VIII. Advisor Reports

- Alumnus Advisor: Dave Maguire- The dishwasher will be delivered sometime this week. Somebody needs to facilitate an educational on how to properly operate the dishwasher once it is installed to prevent messes. An electrician was here and fixed the sockets in the laundry room and kitchen, along with fixing the doorbell. A consultant is working on internet issues, firstly by doubling bandwidth and possibly needing to buy more equipment. Everyone should try and personally introduce themselves to all of their professors in order to start this semester on a good foot and focus on classes as a priority.
- Faculty Advisor: Dr. Tom Cody- Absent
- Graduate Assistant: Justin Wilson- Reminder to pay attention to turning off lights when leaving rooms, and washing dishes after using them.
- Committee Reports- Logan (IFC): There could be possible policy changes for grade penalties in fraternities. There will be a blood drive on February 25th in the Heritage room.
 Applications for homecoming committee, due by the 30th. IFC is also considering going back to formal recruitment.
- IX. New business- ASA said yes, that they will be our partners for homecoming. Greek Week theme is between Maroon 5 and Britney Spears, and we voted for Britney Spears.
- X. Old Business- None
- XI. Announcements- Logan- Pepsi guy came in and partially filled pop machine and will return sometime this week to fill it completely.
- XII. Good & Welfare of The Order- None
- XIII. Duck of the Week- Goes to Matt for cleaning the dishes when no one else did.
